Obituary

Sister Carrie Delle Partee was born June 3, 1922 in Repton, Alabama to the late Leonard and Carrie (Monroe) Arron. She confessed her life to Christ and was baptized at an early age. She briefly attended State Normal School and University for Colored Students and Teachers (currently known as Alabama State University). Due to the harsh times of the Great Depression, she left school to find work.

Sister Partee primarily worked as a Sales Clerk and lived in Florida (Pensacola), Ohio (Cleveland), Pennsylvania (Pittsburg) and Washington (Seattle) before settling in California. While living in Seattle, she began a lifetime career with Avon Products, Inc. Having worked with Avon over 32 years, she received many accolades as a Top Sales Rep and Sales Manager before retiring in 1985.

While living in Ohio, she met the love of her life and soul mate Brother William Partee in 1958. After a courtship of four years, they were married on April 3, 1962.

Sister Partee was a longtime member of Good Shepherd Baptist Church in Oakland where she was a member of the choir and Chairperson of the Board of Christian Education from 1984-1986. She also mentored and chaperoned youth groups to various Christian events. Sister Partee later joined and was an active member at St. John's Missionary Baptist Church in Richmond. Next, she joined Bethlehem Missionary Baptist Church in Richmond where she was a part of the Women's Ministry and choir. In 2004, she returned to St. John's Missionary Baptist Church where she remained an active member until her death. Over the years, she enjoyed bible study and participating in various church activities.

Sister Partee enjoyed traveling, spending time with family and friends, attending church affairs and listening to gospel music. She also loved taking pictures and having her picture taken. However, her favorite pastime was shopping for clothes, hats and shoes.

Preceding her in death were her brothers Willie and Johnny Arron, her sister Addie Appleton and son William Partee, Jr.

She leaves to cherish her memories her loving husband of 51 years William Partee Sr.; two grandchildren Michael Partee of Cleveland, OH and Keneitha Partee-Cordle (Jenning Cordle, Sr.) of Columbus, OH; one great grandson, Jenning Cordle Jr. and a niece Carolyn Ann Bradley-Muhammad, both of Columbus, OH; two God daughters, Louise Stewart and Judy Washington both of Richmond, CA; two dear friends Ruby Walker and Barbara Saucer, both of Richmond, CA and host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
